

5 days: Ascent of the Ararat (5137 m)

Highlights of the 5 days trip to Mount Ararat (5137m) on the high plateau of East Anatolia

- Ascent of Mount Ararat (5.137 m), the highest mountain in Turkey. The ascent of the 5000m high mountain, technically graded as fairly easy takes place along the only the permitted route via two camps.
- The hospitality of a Kurdish nomad family during a homely evening meal will be filled with many unforgettable moments.

Day 1: We meet in Igdir or Agri city airport in Turkey. And transfer to Dogubayazit Ararat city. Overnight stay in a comfortable three star hotel.

Day 2:

Transfer Mount Ararat by car 2200 meters. And trekking Ararat base camp 3200 meters. Overnight camping stay at camp 1. Breakfast- Lunch -Dinner.

Day 3:

Ascent Mt Ararat second camp at 4200 meters. Overnight stay in tent at camp 2. Breakfast -Lunch - Dinner.

Day 4:

Ararat Summit day. Trek and reaching Ararat peak. And return back to base camp 3200 meters. Overnight stay at camp 1. Breakfast -Lunch- Dinner.

Day 5:

After Breakfast walking back to down. And meeting with our bus, drive back to Dogubeyazit city, overnight stay in hotel. Breakfast.

INCLUDED

- All transfers between airports.
- All transfer on mountain and hotel.
- Ararat permit.
- Two night hotel in dogubayazit.
- Trekking guide.
- Cook chef.
- Mountain foods and drink services.
- All mountain hot meals and drinks.
- Tents for camping.
- Ice crampons.
- Mattress.
- Horses and porters service on Ararat mountain.
- Mt Ararat Summit Certificate.

Services not included in the travel price:

- individual visits and excursions
- Tips
- Excess baggage
- Insurance